

Butterfly, We're Expecting You!

What will you find when you explore your backyard? Will you see a butterfly, a frog, a bird or maybe even a dinosaur? Come and take a walk in the backyard, bath in the golden sunlight, feel the warm breeze on your face, but most importantly see what wonderful things you can find.

This is one of the most beautiful books I have ever read.

Written by beloved author Libby Hathorn and illustrated by the acclaimed Lisa Stewart, this beautiful book takes children on a wonderful journey through the backyard. Seeing all the wonders that can be found there.

This amazingly simple book took my breath away. Whilst reading this book I wished I had children to share it with.

In a time of screens and gadgets this amazing story will remind children of the joys of being outside and the wonderful things that can be found outdoors.

This is a book that every child should have. I can't say a bad word about it.
